

2018 Look Ahead

I am debuting my newest Tarot Deck I received for Christmas from my family.

Special thanks to Nina Riggle of Beana's Workshop for the lovely feathered tarot bag

The Wild Unknown Tarot by Kim Karns

.Overarching Energy – The Chariot

The Chariot says that whatever happens in 2018 it will arrive quickly and leave quickly.

The Chariot is a card of triumph and success in the face of challenges. It requires someone to take the reins and focus the energy to accomplish the goals. Be the charioteer of 2018.

January - Father of Pentacles

The Father of Pentacles brings strong stable energy to the first month of 2018. There is practical knowledge and experience in this card. Use this knowledge to take action, the time for thinking and creating is finished. Manifest what you want with the power and energy you have acquired.

February - Three of Swords

Ouch. February brings some harsh energy. The Three of Swords often means heartache of some kind, breakup, divorce or betrayal. The advice is to not pull against the entanglement or the pain will be greater. Do not make decisions while in this energy. A good month to lay low

March-Six of Pentacles

We enter a time of abundance, made all the sweeter after the pain of February's energy. The Six of Pentacles says we have enough to share or we might have been the recipient of unexpected bounty. Enjoy the fruits of your labor and be sure to acknowledge those who have been there for you and pay it forward to others in need.

April – The Hierophant

April brings the rebirth of mother earth along with your quest for knowledge. Are you the student seeking new information, or are you the teacher providing a path of learning for others. In either case there is much energy associated with April. You hold the key to unlocking untold communication and ancient knowledge. Don't grip it too tightly or you may receive a shock.

May – Mother of Wands

May brings powerful energy that is coiled but not quite ready to be used. Mother of Wands is a fierce protector of those she cares about. She is dynamic and graceful and can strike with lightning speed. This may be someone you already know or someone you will meet this month, or it may even be you. In all cases know that left undisturbed there is a nurturing energy, but when threatened be ready for action.

June – Eight of Cups

Time to move on. The Eight of Cups asks that you be not afraid to leave that which does not serve you. Although these cups may have taken effort to fill and they were useful at one time, they no longer can provide what you seek. Allow the pieces to remain as you seek the horizon and the dawn of a new day.

July – Nine of Cups

Already the energy is moving from the Eight of Cups last month into the Nine of Cups this month. This is a card of abundance, of hard work rewarded with merriment and enjoyment. Revel in what you have discovered and earned, you have enough to share. Offer thanks to those who have guided your path, physical and spiritual. Joy is multiplied when shared among friends.

August – Ace of Pentacles

The positive energy continues into August. You are empowered, and feel the desire to create something new. Plant the seed this month. Start where you are, for if you never start the tree will never get a chance to grow. Take the chance the Ace is a gift from God/Source/Spirit.

September – Two of Cups

Two of Cups is a card of partnership. Lovers, friends, business partners or family, who feel a soul connection arrive with this card. Join with one of your tribe and feel the power of two working as one. This is a bond that transcends time. Sigh and relax into the comfort of a partnership that was destined to happen.

October – Justice

Balance. The sword of truth has cut through the bullshit and points to the central issue you have been facing. You may see things in black and white, but, the Justice card asks that you see the opposing view as well. Balance will be achieved with or without your input.

November – Nine of Wands

The way seems treacherous. Nines say you are nearing the end of this cycle. You are exhausted and bleary eyed, not sure you will be able to take another step, let alone across such treacherous terrain. Take heart, the finish line is in sight, you have the strength, trust in your own inner abilities. After you pass the Ten you will not need to take this same journey ever again.

December – Six of Swords

2018 ends on a card of hope. You are moving away from darkness and turmoil into the calm steady waters and the rainbow after a storm. Allow some time to rest and rejuvenate. You may take a short trip which would be refreshing to your psyche. Raise your eyes to the beauty around you.
